Truman Signs On Controls

Blast Taken at Measure That Fails to Meet His Proposals

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1—(AP)—President Truman reluctantly signed the new controls law last night with a blast at provisions which he said would "damage Americans" and force prices to "heights which we cannot yet foresee."

The new law, which permits some price rollbacks and some increases, and eases consumer credit curbs, continues basic economic controls from last midnight through next June 30.

He promised a fight "or powers which were denied or curtailed, saying the nation's families cannot have protection against inflation until Congress repairs the damage done by this new act."

And he said the section of the law covering inflation curbs is so bad he would have used a veto had it not been tied to essential powers to encourage production, channel materials to essential uses, aid business and control rents. He called those latter provisions "relatively adequate."

"We will not be able to hold down rising prices under this act, and I am going to ask the Congress to amend it to give us adequate controls," Mr. Truman said in a formal statement.

He said the new law will force the government "to permit reasonable adjustments in wages" to fit cost of living increases. Working people, he went on, cannot foot the bill for "the higher profits this act provides."

Statement A Reply To GOP

Mr. Truman's statement was a vigorous reply to those Republicans who have said this is a good bill, and one that could control inflation—if properly administered.

He aimed some of his hardest (Please turn to Page 4, Column 5)

Need For 200 More Donors to Blood Bank

Why Sedalia and Pettis county responded so readily during World War II to the call for blood donors and will not respond now to the call of the Red Cross for blood for young soldiers in the Korean war who need it so badly remains a mystery.

But that is the story. Only 200 people in the county have registered and there must be 400.

William E. Hurlbut, Jr., stated that the system set up was wonderful if the people will just respond and complete the job.

Harry Nantz, with the assistance of the Business and Professional Women's club, has secured his quota of 100 donors.

Mrs. P. L. Strole is working to get donors from the residential district and Jack Pasley is working through the industries. Also, there are committees working in each township in the county with a quota of six donors from each township.

From Germany To Reside Here

M. J. Ressel, 703 West Third, returned Tuesday night from Germany bringing back with him Mrs. Therese Daniels and her son Peter who will live in the Ressel home.

Mrs. Ressel left for Germany on Saturday, July 1, going first to St. Louis where he took a plane to New York, then a plane to London and from London a plane to Germany. The entire trip over was made in 21½ hours, the return trip taking the same number of hours, both trips without incident.

Mrs. Ressel learned of Mrs. Daniels and her desire to come to the United States to make her home through his relatives in Germany. Mrs. Daniels has not yet had time to find out what she really thinks of her new country except she is amazed at its vastness. The bigness of New York and its high buildings, the country covered by plane from New York to St. Louis and the great amount of farm lands between communities.

"Where," she asked Mr. Ressel, "are the cities?" She couldn't understand why they are so far apart.

Resume Trading At Stockyards

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 1—(AP)—Limited trading operations will be resumed Monday at the Kansas City livestock market.

The announcement was made today after a meeting of representatives of the Kansas City Stock Yards company, the Kansas City Livestock Exchange and the Traders Stock Yards company.

The market will be open to receive shipments of cattle and hogs at 6 p. m. Sunday. It was emphasized that no sheep can be handled at this time.

Sawyer Inspects Flood Cleanup

Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer (right), on a tour of the devastated areas of Kansas City, Mo., stops to talk to Mrs. Ted Hawkins, wife of Senator Ted Hawkins, who is standing in the flooded area. Sawyer is inspecting the damage done by the flooding of the Kaw river. Both he and Sawyer stand in river mud deposited by the Kaw which raged through the area for several days. Sawyer said he wanted a first hand look at the devastation to see how his department could aid in the rehabilitation of the damaged sections. (AP Wirephoto)

Few Tenants To Be Hit For Full Increase

Increases Already Granted Are To Be Absorbed

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1—(AP)—Few tenants will be hit by the full 20 per cent rent increase over 1947 ceilings which is allowed under the new defense production act, office of rent stabilization (ORS) officials said today.

Increases already granted, under earlier laws or local rent adjustments, will have absorbed all but 5 or 6 per cent of the permitted increase in most cases, a spokesman said.

He indicated that ORS—formerly the office of housing expediter, now transferred to the economic stabilization agency—will give top priority to the restoration of rent ceilings in jammed defense areas.

This can be done only after Secretary of Defense Marshall and Mobilization Director Charles E. Wilson, by joint action, certify each such community as a "critical housing area."

Forty-odd centers of defense production and military activity have been designated "critical" for the purpose of relaxing real estate credit controls, to stimulate new housing construction, but this will not be sufficient for the reimposition of rent ceilings.

New Certifications

New certifications must be made. The list, however, is expected to duplicate in large part the designations already made for credit control by the defense production administration (DPA).

The new law does not affect states, cities or towns which have decontrolled themselves, nor does it change the "local option" power of cities, counties and states to decontrol themselves.

However, if a community does vote for decontrol, Wilson and Secretary Marshall may, after 30 days, restore federal ceilings by re-certifying it.

And any community which has (Please turn to Page 4, Column 5)

A State Highway Department survey party next week will begin a final survey for proposed state supplementary (farm-to-market) route W in Pettis county, according to H. M. Brush, division engineer at the department's division four office in Kansas City.

This proposed new road will begin on U. S. route 50 and extend along the east city limits of Smithton to a connection with supplementary route C, about five miles south and one mile west of Smithton. It will total about 8.6 miles in length.

Haw, instrumentman, Maurice Kennedy and W. L. Wilkinson, head chainmen, Raymond Mueller, N. B. Wathen, J. B. Lubin, Wayne Wiseman and B. L. Whitworth, rodman.

FRB Revises Regulations On Credit

Brought Into Line With The Production Act

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1—(AP)—The Federal Reserve Board promptly revised its consumer credit regulations last night to bring them into line with the new Defense Production Act.

Simultaneously with the signing of the controls act by President Truman, the board issued an amendment to its regulation W which regulates installment credit.

The amendment, effective immediately, lengthens the maximum credit period for automobiles, household appliances, radio and television sets, and furniture from 15 to 18 months, and for home and repair improvements from 30 to 36 months.

In accordance with the new legislation, down payment requirements for household appliances and television sets are reduced from 25 to 15 per cent. The down payment required by the regulation may be made in cash, trade-in or a combination of both.

The 10 per cent down payment required for home repair and improvements now need not be obtained prior to completion of the work.

The down payment on automobiles remains unchanged at one-third, but the time of paying is extended from 15 to 18 months. Here is a summary of the revised terms of regulation W:

Automobiles, one third down and 18 months to pay.
Household appliances, furniture, and television sets, 15 per cent down and 18 months.

Residential repair and improvements, 10 per cent down and 36 months.
Unclassified installment loans, no down payment and 18 months.

Plumbing Exempted

In addition, the board exempted from regulation W any installment credit for the installation of sewage and related facilities, including plumbing fixtures, where the householder is required to make such installation by local, state or federal health and sanitary regulations.

Block Where Left 50 Years Ago

When the library building was built 50 years ago F. G. Doty, 439 East Tenth, was 17 years old and helped to build it. The contractors were Ed Hurley and Rudolph Dean and all were proud of the building after it was finished.

It was Doty's job to grade the ground after the job was done and there was only one big piece of terra cotta left so he hauled it away out east and dumped it out at 2300 East 16th, near the John Colaflower home. Today it is still there just as he dropped it 50 years ago.

Library Open House Well Attended

Address by Senator 'Ted' Hawkins on Carnegie Given

Many Sedalians attended the open house at the library Tuesday, the second day of the two-day celebration of the 50th anniversary.

Throughout the newly redecorated building were many arrangements of flowers, the gifts of the Sedalia Garden clubs and the Sedalia Garden society.

The program, with Senator C. R. (Ted) Hawkins of Sedalia as speaker, was held in the assembly room of the library.

Miss Hazel Gray, president of the library board, presided at the meeting and stated that the goal of the library is to serve the people of Sedalia and to meet the needs as it had always done in the past.

Invocation was by the Rev. William C. Bessmer, pastor of the Immanuel Evangelical and Reformed church.

Miss Gray stated that two of the 11 past presidents were present and introduced them. They were Mrs. H. L. Terry and Mrs. Elza P. Berry.

She then introduced Miss Jessie Blair who had served on the library for a long period of years; John G. Crawford, who had also been a board member; Mrs. Lee Montgomery, wife of the late Lee Montgomery who was a member of the original board; Charles E. Messerly, another member of the original board and George H. Scruton, whose father, Col. George H. Scruton, was a past president of the board.

Members of the present board were then introduced by Miss Gray. They were Herbert Zoernig, vice-president, Mrs. Arthur Hoffman, secretary, Mrs. Elza P. Berry, Mrs. Harve Terry, V. H. (Please turn to Page 4, Column 3)

Jury Inquiry On Jones' Death

KANSAS CITY, Aug. 1—(AP)—Judge John F. Cook today charged a Jackson county grand jury with the "thorough investigation" of the disappearance and murder of Matt Jones.

The body of Jones, a former courthouse janitor, was found floating in the Missouri river. He was a key witness in legal actions against Alfred H. Osborn, a lawyer, and others.

Oatis was sentenced to 10 years in prison after a spy trial denounced here as a farce.

On June 2, the United States announced a ban on travel to Czechoslovakia by American citizens.

Reaches Iron Curtain

Mr. Truman signed today's proclamation under a provision of the recent Trade Agreements Extension Act requiring him to revoke tariff concessions to Iron Curtain countries.

A White House file showed that the first countries to be notified about the action were Czechoslovakia and Poland.

One of the highlights of the extensive bridge exhibit is expected to be the six authentic bridge models that are to be set up. Drawn to scale, these will picture the following structures: Grade separation over U. S. route 71 on the Paseo, near the south city limits of Kansas City; the concrete span over Elk River on U. S. route 71, near Noel, McDonald county; the concrete and steel girder bridge over the Express Highway on U. S. route 71, near Forest Park, St. Louis; the red granite trimmed limestone grade separation on U. S. routes 66, 61, and 67 by-pass, at Huntleigh Village, St. Louis county.

Receives High Decoration

Lt. Commiskey Killed 7 in Hand-To-Hand Combat

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1—(AP)—Lt. Henry Alfred Commiskey, 24, who killed seven Communists in hand-to-hand combat, today was awarded the Congressional Medal of Honor — the first marine to receive it for heroism in Korea.

President Truman personally fastened the decoration around the neck of the young first lieutenant in a White House ceremony.

Commiskey was cited for "conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty" in fearlessly leading a charge up a hill last September. It was in this scrap that he personally disposed of seven enemy soldiers.

There were some indications the White House had made special arrangements for the ceremony for Commiskey. It released to reporters the citation for the marine although these ordinarily are issued at the Pentagon, even when a ceremony is held at the White House.

There was no explanation, but reporters recalled that Mr. Truman had been in the White House (Please turn to Page 6, Column 4)

Proclamation Ending Tariff Concessions

Applies to Russia, Red China And to Some Satellite

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1—(AP)—President Truman today ordered an end to tariff concessions granted to Russia, Red China and certain satellite areas.

The White House said Mr. Truman signed a proclamation which would end the way for official notifications to be sent to the affected nations.

Just how the action might affect Czechoslovakia was not made clear immediately.

The State department last night announced plans to cut off tariff concessions to Red Czechoslovakia, and officials said Mr. Truman shortly would issue the required order.

Last night's announcement was the second time the United States has struck out at the Prague regime since the arrest last April of Associated Press correspondent William N. Oatis.

Oatis was sentenced to 10 years in prison after a spy trial denounced here as a farce.

On June 2, the United States announced a ban on travel to Czechoslovakia by American citizens.

We Know Not Who Won, But We Know Who Lost

THE GILA MURDER

IX
"MAKE it brief," Johnnie McAdams said as soon as he entered Chief Mitchell's office. "I picked up Pat Colton on the way and we're going out of town, where nobody knows her. If she doesn't get away from that house, she'll go crazy. She's waiting in my car."

"Paul wants to ask you a question," the police chief said.

McAdams impatiently regarded the prosecuting attorney.

"Okay then, Paul. Let's hear what you've got on your mind. But I don't think I can throw much light on Mrs. Colton's death."

Paul Baker asked: "I just want to know, McAdams, what you were doing at Laura Colton's car at the Community Center lot last night?"

Slowly the lawyer's face reddened.

"Who says I was there?"

"Two small boys who came to me with the information this afternoon," Chief Mitchell leaned forward as he spoke. "Why didn't you tell me, Paul, that those kids had come to you?"

"Because they didn't. I decided that McAdams was the one who probably left whatever it was Laura Colton expected to find in her glove box."

"Maybe he left the Gila Monster!" Chief Mitchell snapped. "Maybe he's the guy that took out the glove box light, too?"

"I did nothing of the kind!" Mc-

Adams almost screamed. "I merely left a document there as I was supposed to. I can't tell you what it was, for it was of a strictly confidential nature. That's why Laura's car was parked in back so I could leave it there without any member of her family seeing me."

"So some member of her family was interested?" Baker demanded.

"Who? Lawrence?"

McAdams glared at him. "I refuse to answer."

"Then," said Mitchell, "I'll have to hold you. If you had nothing to do with that Gila Monster, it's time you came clean."

McAdams writhed miserably. Then, "All right, I'll tell you. Laura had me draw a new will yesterday afternoon. She set up another trust fund, this time for Lawrence. Pat was named trustee. She was to have complete control of Lawrence's share of the inheritance. Laura was convinced that the boy was going insane. I suppose she was right. Dr. Creighton here thinks so, anyway."

He glanced at the doctor.

"Lawrence found out what she was up to and had a fit. He stormed into my office and made vague threats as to what he'd do if I wrote such a will. Of course I had no alternative but to draw it. But the kid kept a check on Laura's whereabouts, and to save trouble I was to deliver the will by putting it in her glove box. She was to sign it in the presence of two servants, put it back into her glove box, and I was to pick it up when she parked her car downtown today. I'll swear that's all I will turn up missing, of course. I think you can understand why I kept my mouth shut."

"I think so," said the chief, staring at McAdams. "You've just about slipped a noose over Lawrence Colton's neck."

"They electrocute in this state," said Baker coldly.

Try Something Different; You May Surprise Yourself

Have you surprised anybody lately — your husband, your friends, your family, or even yourself?

Have you done anything to make those who know you best say, "I didn't know you could do that," or, "I had no idea you were interested in such-and-such?" Or to make yourself think, "I didn't know I could do that?"

If you haven't, take the next opportunity that comes your way to do something you've never thought you could do. It might be making anything from a speech to a slip cover. All that matters is that it is something nobody, including yourself, would think you could do.

What's the importance of doing the unexpected now and then? Well, it has several good effects on the personality.

It gives you a new confidence in yourself to find that you can do something you always figured you couldn't do and so avoided in the past.

And it adds a lot of zip to your personality so far as others are concerned. There is always admiration behind the statement, "I had no idea you could do so-and-so."

Easy Idea To Sell
And unless you consciously do the unexpected and tackle the challenging opportunity occasionally, you get pretty set and narrow in your ways. You become one of those persons who are forever saying, "I couldn't possibly do such-and-such." And that is a mighty easy idea to sell to others.

So if you want to be proud of yourself and interesting to other people don't set a lot of limitations on what you can and can't do.

Tackle something difficult now and then—something that seems difficult because you always figured you hadn't the talent or ability to do it. And show yourself and others that it is something you can do as well as the next person.

GOP Faces Tough Job In Wooing Eisenhower

By Drew Pearson

(Copyright, 1951, By The Bell Syndicate, Inc.)

WASHINGTON, August 1 — General Dwight D. Eisenhower has quietly passed the word to his GOP boosters that he is not interested in the Republican nomination — if isolationists control the party.

In addition, Ike let it be known that he is upset by the timid and hesitant policy of international-minded Republicans and the way they let bitter attacks on him go unheeded.

One close friend who returned from Paris recently put it this way:

"If the Republicans want Ike merely to bail out the party and win an election, they're badly mistaken. That would be like putting a million dollar jockey on a two dollar horse."

"The general is not the least bit interested in running for President just to accommodate a candidate for sheriff. Those who say they want Ike so badly are going to have to do a lot more than say, 'He's a fine fellow and will win the election for us.' They'll have to work and fight to make the Republican party the kind of place where the general would feel at home."

Eisenhower's close friends agree that this issue will largely decide whether he consents to run and on which party they claim Eisenhower is disturbed by four factors:

1. The prospect that as the GOP nominee he might help elect an isolationist Republican Congress which would then proceed to dump the military and economic aid program which has been spear-headed.

2. The lack of a hard-hitting, effective international-minded GOP bloc in Congress, as existed when Senator Arthur Vandenberg was active. The last attempt to organize the internationalists among Senate Republicans was in January, 1949, when Senator Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., called a meeting. This rump group met once.

3. The way the Taft-isolationist wing has grabbed control of the GOP party machinery. Ab Hermann, the national committee's executive director, boasted to reporters the other night: "We're building a sound organization precinct by precinct, so we won't have to ride to victory on the coat tails of a strong and popular figure." The Taft crowd are in charge of the Chicago convention machinery and determined to prevent an Eisenhower gallop.

4. The noisy attacks on the general from both the Chicago Tribune and the Gerald L. K. Smith brand of hate mongers. The mails are being flooded with vile diatribes against the general, who his GOP friends sit on the sidelines.

Note — Meanwhile, Governor Dewey's brain trust is laying out plans to organize the east coast for Eisenhower. The trio is Paul Lockwood, now with Dewey in the Far East; his shrewd press secretary, Jim Hagerty; and President Truman's 1948 campaign speech writer, former columnist Jay Franklin.

Sam Stands Pat
House Republicans tried to make a deal recently to put their No. 1 penny-pincher, Rep. John Taber of New York, on all the appropriations sub-committees. This would enable him to keep a hawk eye on every penny appropriated by Congress.

The GOP return pay-off was an offer not to cut the interior department's appropriations. This was a shrewd move, because they knew the public power appropriations in the interior bill were dear indeed to Speaker Sam Rayburn's heart.

It was left to GOP leader Joe Martin to try to make the bargain. Ambling up to Rayburn, Joe mumbled:

"I plan to object to the interior bill unless a deal can be worked out."

Rayburn wouldn't tumble. In fact, he wouldn't even listen. "I'm not interested," he snapped before Martin could make the GOP offer.

Tax Gravy
All sorts of people are trying to get into the act when it comes to tax gravy for building war plants. Not only did the Chicago Tribune try to entice the Truman administration — which it bitterly hates — into giving the Tribune over $2,000,000 in tax amortization benefits for enlarging its printing plant and pressroom, but manufacturers of toilet paper, sausage casings, diapers, hominy grits, macaroni, and chocolate candy have applied for a ride on the tax gravy train.

Here are some of the firms which have applied to the government for five-year tax amortization on the ground that new plants they were building or enlarging were necessary to mobilization:

New York Daily News — Part of the Chicago Tribune group, applied for tax benefits on $3,245,000 or a building in Brooklyn in which to store newsprint.

Chicago Tribune Syndicate — Applied for tax benefits on $8,380,122 for "news services."

Chicopee Mfg. Corp. of Milltown, N. J. — Asked for tax benefits on a $35,534 building for the manufacture of "disposable diapers."

M & M Ltd., of Newark, N. J. — Asked for tax benefits on $494,000 in connection with an expansion for making chocolate candy. It argued that it made candy for the army and would not be able to supply the demand without the new building.

Quaker Oats of Chattanooga — Asked for tax concessions on a $2,700,000 plant to make hominy grits.

All the above were denied. Other applications, also denied, followed:

Crisfield Dehydrating Co., Somerset county, Md., makers of chickenfeed, $48,000; Continental Can of Milwaukee, makers of beer cans, $197,000; Santa Anita Pottery, makers of chinaware, $71,618; Earliciff, Inc., Cleveland, to erect an office building, $850,000; C. H. Musselman Co., Adams county, Pennsylvania, makers of sliced apples, $150,000; Transper Package Co., of Chicago, makers of sausage casings, $219,449; and Golden Grain Macaroni, San Leandro, Calif., macaroni makers, $321,778.

Evita Peron For Veep?
Although Argentine dictator Juan Peron and his flossy alter ego, Evita, have been working hard for three years to make her acceptable to all their supporters as a vice presidential candidate there is still a dihard core of army officers who just can't stomach the idea.

As recently as June 22, six representatives of this group, most of whom are stationed at Campo de Mayo, the big army garrison just outside Buenos Aires, called on Peron to let him know how they felt about the matter. They were very outspoken but didn't get much satisfaction in return — not even the satisfaction of making the glib gaucho angry.

A colonel, spokesman for the officers, began diplomatically enough by praising Evita's charitable work with her social aid foundation, agency through which the rewards the faithful and hits her enemies where it hurts the most. (When Defino Cabrera, a Buenos Aires fireman, won the marathon at the 1948 Olympic games, Eva's foundation spent 130,000 pesos — then about $32,500 — to buy him a house and a car as "tokens of the national gratitude.")

She should be allowed to continue with those laudable labors, argued the spokesman, rather than being converted into a political figure. Besides which, he added candidly, a great many Argentine males — especially military men — found it nearly impossible to swallow the notion of a woman in the nation's No. 2 spot. That was going too far and too fast with equality of the sexes, he complained. His colleagues chimed in to second the sentiment.

Peron Stands Pat
Peron, in reply, was at his affable, suave, and disarming best. In the first place, he said, he really had nothing to do with the question; the proposal to nominate Evita had come from several labor unions and was strictly something for the Peronista party convention to decide. Furthermore, they must realize that acceptance of such a postulation would depend on his own decision about standing for reelection — and that hadn't been made yet.

(This, of course, brought urgent exclamations of, "Oh, but you must," "the country needs you," and so on, from the visitors.)

Finally, Peron concluded with his most ingratiating smile, Evita

Sooner Poison Ivy Is Treated The Easier It Will Be to Cure

By Edwin P. Jordan, M. D.
Written for NEA Service

My favorite story about poison ivy occurred several years ago when I found a city-bred lady on the beach one hot day fanning off the flies with a fine sprig of poison ivy. As expected she later had a rather unpleasant few days.

Poison ivy (and poison oak and sumach) are principally summer troubles, not because they are poisonous at that time of the year only, but principally because more people are roaming around the countryside in warm weather and therefore more likely to come in contact with them. Actually the irritating oil which they contain can produce trouble in the dead of winter, and sometimes difficulty has developed merely from being in the smoke of a fire in which poison ivy was being burned.

But this is really a summer complaint and is better avoided, then treated. The most important thing is that anyone who is remotely likely to go near a place where poison ivy grows should learn to recognize this plant with its shiny, three pointed leaf. It can then be avoided like "poison." Not all people are equally sensitive to the oil of this plant. Some people break out even if they just walk by the plant. Others claim that they never get it, but nearly every doctor has seen patients with severe skin irritations from this source who boasted and were careless once too often.

Wash Immediately
In spite of precautions there will continue to be some who come in contact with poison ivy. If this is discovered at the time the best thing to do it to wash the skin which came in contact two or three times with soap and water — and just as soon as possible.

For small skin irritations calamine lotion or crystals of potassium permanganate dissolved in water (the latter stains the skin) are often useful and will help to prevent the irritation from spreading. The spreading, incidentally, can be done by scratching or rubbing since the oil is so irritating that even a small amount carried elsewhere. For cases in which a large area of the skin is involved, professional attention is usually necessary.

Scouts Camp Season Closes

Sports Mingled With Adventure At Pa-He-Tsi

Camp Pa-He-Tsi, Lake of the Ozark Council Boy scout camp, located near Osage Beach, Mo., closed last Sunday following a week of field sports and high adventure for Boy Scouts four weeks previous.

Eighteen Explorers, 14-18 years old, including Tom Hood, Don Hothens, Bob Morgan, Lyle Brown, and Bob Austin of Sedalia, competed for three days in archery, and bait-casting skills for an expense paid trip to the First National Field Sports Tournament to be held at the Philmont Scout Ranch near Cimmaron, N. M.

Among the ten Explorers to win the Philmont trip were Tom Hood, Post 54, who finished first place in archery, and Don Hothens, Troop 52, who finished in second place in bait-casting skills. The Explorers will leave for Philmont about August 11 for the week-long tournament.

Had Canoe Trip
The last four days of the Explorer encampment included a vigorous canoe trip to the end of the Grand Glaze Arm of the Lake of the Ozarks and on up the Aug-laze River about four miles. The Explorers encountered portages and many swift rapids to add to the ruggedness of the trip. On the last day of the canoe trip, they paddled better than 15 miles to return to the base camp.

Leaders of the Explorer Trails were Kent Kane, field executive of Eldon, Jim Langridge, field executive of Sedalia, and Richard

May we suggest a Sitting?

No doubt about it—you'll make a mighty handsome picture in a strapping new '51 Buick.

But it isn't the way you look, but the way you feel that's really important.

We'd like you to discover a Buick's ease and comfort, a Buick's power and performance, a Buick's steadiness and control—just to see if maybe you have been missing a travel treat.

We'd like you to discover what a valve-in-head engine, as Buick builds it—gingered with Fireball combustion—can mean in pulse-pounding thrill and in big miles-per-gallon figures.

We'd like you to learn what coil springs on all four wheels—not just in front—can do in the matter of smoothing a rough road and keeping you on an ever-level keel.

We'd like you to see what generous roadweight and a rigid torque-tube mean in solid steadiness of ride—what Dynaflo Drive* does for you in downright comfort and convenience—what a breeze it is to handle so big and roomy and impressive a car.

Most of all, we'd like you to note the

"Smart Buy's Buick"

easy-to-take price tags our cars wear—what a whale of a lot more automobile you get for your money in today's Buicks than you'll get elsewhere.

So—come in for a sitting soon, won't you? Whether you try a SPECIAL, SUPER or ROADMASTER, you'll find it the top buy in its field—and a beauty from any angle.

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. *Standard on ROADMASTER, optional at extra cost on other Series.

blows at the section of the law which prohibits the setting of quotas on livestock slaughter, saying it amounts to "encourage the return of black markets."

He was no less severe in his indictment of the price ceiling provisions. Two big ones require that ceilings reflect new costs incurred before last Thursday and that retailers and wholesalers get their customary percentage margin over costs.

Mr. Truman declared the price provisions would cause a rise in "ceiling prices for the manufacturer, the wholesaler and the retailer."

He hit specifically at the prohibition against planned additional rollback on live beef.

He said it "makes effective rollbacks on other vital cost-of-living commodities practically impossible."

already decontrolled may, by its own action, ask for reimposition of federal control. This would apply to states, like control-free Texas, as well as local governments.

States which have their own rent control laws, like New York, will continue to operate under them instead of the federal statute.

Stabilizer Woods has the authority to recontrol rents in non-critical areas, but only to the extent previously allowed. This forbids ceilings on rental homes built since February, 1947, or rented spare rooms, on hotels and tourists' rooms. Woods may reestablish ceilings wherever he decontrolled them voluntarily.

Woods may also, for the first time, put rent ceilings on federal-subsidized public housing. The new law does not, however, apply the 20 per cent increase formula to apartments built under federal housing administration (FHA) mortgage insurance, in which rents are fixed by contract between FHA and the apartment management.

It said the line proposed by Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief UN delegate, would run from Kongsong on the east coast to the tip of Ongjin peninsula on the west coast.

Kosong is 27 miles north of the 38th parallel. Ongjin peninsula just out along both sides of the 38th parallel. The Communists are demanding that the line be drawn along the 38th parallel.

"Thus the Americans try to rob a large territory inside North Korea," the broadcast concluded from Pyongyang, North Korean capital. "The Americans are making every effort to avert the arrival of peace to Korea."

Speaks On Carnegie
Senator Hawkins, the guest speaker, was introduced by Lawrence Barnett, chairman of the legislative committee of the library.

"Carnegie" said Senator Hawkins, "will never be forgotten. His contribution to the human race raises him above the majority and he will live in the hearts and minds of men forever."

Senator Hawkins told briefly of Andrew Carnegie, who rose from a poor immigrant boy deprived of education to one of the wealthiest men in the world and pointed out that this could happen only in this country.

He did not create things that were destructive, the speaker said, for he would not have been long remembered for that. He created something that will live.

But, Senator Hawkins continued, out of all this greatness he could not have done the things he did without the people he worked through like the people of Sedalia 50 years ago. When the library had no building someone had vision and the determination to make it succeed. Today, he said, the people of Sedalia enjoy the fruit of their labor.

It is so easy to see the greatness of people at a distance, Senator Hawkins said, and fail to see the greatness of our own people.

Senator Hawkins stated that Missouri had done much to improve the library needs through legislation in the past several years and planned to do more. People who do not have the advantage of libraries are hungry for good books as has been proven by the establishment of the bookmobile, he said. He explained that among the plans of the legislation is one to raise the qualifications for libraries throughout the state and to improve the standard of library service.

Goes With Education
Senator Hawkins stated that education and libraries go together, for libraries are a form of education, and education, he said, is the most important part of education. He held of the important part great writers have played in influencing the world and of what education has meant to America.

We must not let one part of freedom slip, Senator Hawkins said, for America remains the last hope of free men and free women. America today needs waking up of its spiritual life, he said, we must again reeducate ourselves to those who led the nation.

The meeting closed with benediction by Rev. W. C. Bessmer. Punch was served throughout the evening by members of the library staff, and attractive folders designed by Miss Philomena Bergmann were presented to the guests. Miss Bergmann also made the scroll in the library lobby with the names of the library board members.

Preceding the evening program a dinner in honor of Senator Hawkins was given at the Old Missouri Homestead which was attended by board members, members of the staff and special guests.

blows at the section of the law which prohibits the setting of quotas on livestock slaughter, saying it amounts to "encourage the return of black markets."

He was no less severe in his indictment of the price ceiling provisions. Two big ones require that ceilings reflect new costs incurred before last Thursday and that retailers and wholesalers get their customary percentage margin over costs.

Mr. Truman declared the price provisions would cause a rise in "ceiling prices for the manufacturer, the wholesaler and the retailer."

He hit specifically at the prohibition against planned additional rollback on live beef.

He said it "makes effective rollbacks on other vital cost-of-living commodities practically impossible."

already decontrolled may, by its own action, ask for reimposition of federal control. This would apply to states, like control-free Texas, as well as local governments.

States which have their own rent control laws, like New York, will continue to operate under them instead of the federal statute.

Stabilizer Woods has the authority to recontrol rents in non-critical areas, but only to the extent previously allowed. This forbids ceilings on rental homes built since February, 1947, or rented spare rooms, on hotels and tourists' rooms. Woods may reestablish ceilings wherever he decontrolled them voluntarily.

Woods may also, for the first time, put rent ceilings on federal-subsidized public housing. The new law does not, however, apply the 20 per cent increase formula to apartments built under federal housing administration (FHA) mortgage insurance, in which rents are fixed by contract between FHA and the apartment management.

"The Americans are making every effort to avert the arrival of peace in Korea."

It said the line proposed by Vice Adm. C. Turner Joy, chief UN delegate, would run from Kongsong on the east coast to the tip of Ongjin peninsula on the west coast.

Kosong is 27 miles north of the 38th parallel. Ongjin peninsula just out along both sides of the 38th parallel. The Communists are demanding that the line be drawn along the 38th parallel.

"Thus the Americans try to rob a large territory inside North Korea," the broadcast concluded from Pyongyang, North Korean capital. "The Americans are making every effort to avert the arrival of peace to Korea."

Hot Dog Machine Reported Stolen
Raymond Hood, of the Rock Service station, located on Highway 65 north of Sedalia about six miles, reported to the police an electric hot dog machine had been stolen from the basement of the building. Mr. Hood reported he had unlocked the basement door to the building and left it open to dry out because of the high water which had gotten into it. The electric hot dog machine disappeared in the meantime.

Winberg, Ray Hunt and Lawrence Barnett. Philip McLaughlin, another member, was out of the city.

Staff members, Miss Mary Engle, librarian, Miss Marie Fritz, Miss Nettie R. Lamm, Mrs. William Wickliffe, assistants, Miss Yvonne Leiter, children's librarian, Miss Philomena Bergmann and Miss Faye Walter, part time assistants, were then introduced as were State Representative Dan Doty and Mayor Herb Studer and Mrs. Studer.

Mayor Studer then made a short talk in appreciation of the library and its service.

Speaks On Carnegie
Senator Hawkins, the guest speaker, was introduced by Lawrence Barnett, chairman of the legislative committee of the library.

"Carnegie" said Senator Hawkins, "will never be forgotten. His contribution to the human race raises him above the majority and he will live in the hearts and minds of men forever."

Senator Hawkins told briefly of Andrew Carnegie, who rose from a poor immigrant boy deprived of education to one of the wealthiest men in the world and pointed out that this could happen only in this country.

He did not create things that were destructive, the speaker said, for he would not have been long remembered for that. He created something that will live.

But, Senator Hawkins continued, out of all this greatness he could not have done the things he did without the people he worked through like the people of Sedalia 50 years ago. When the library had no building someone had vision and the determination to make it succeed. Today, he said, the people of Sedalia enjoy the fruit of their labor.

It is so easy to see the greatness of people at a distance, Senator Hawkins said, and fail to see the greatness of our own people.

Senator Hawkins stated that Missouri had done much to improve the library needs through legislation in the past several years and planned to do more. People who do not have the advantage of libraries are hungry for good books as has been proven by the establishment of the bookmobile, he said. He explained that among the plans of the legislation is one to raise the qualifications for libraries throughout the state and to improve the standard of library service.

Goes With Education
Senator Hawkins stated that education and libraries go together, for libraries are a form of education, and education, he said, is the most important part of education. He held of the important part great writers have played in influencing the world and of what education has meant to America.

We must not let one part of freedom slip, Senator Hawkins said, for America remains the last hope of free men and free women. America today needs waking up of its spiritual life, he said, we must again reeducate ourselves to those who led the nation.

The meeting closed with benediction by Rev. W. C. Bessmer. Punch was served throughout the evening by members of the library staff, and attractive folders designed by Miss Philomena Bergmann were presented to the guests. Miss Bergmann also made the scroll in the library lobby with the names of the library board members.

Preceding the evening program a dinner in honor of Senator Hawkins was given at the Old Missouri Homestead which was attended by board members, members of the staff and special

Chiefs And Boonville Play Tonight

Three Teams in Three-way Tie For First Place

First place in the Central Missouri Ban Johnson league race will again be at stake tonight when the Sedalia Chiefs encounter the Boonville Lions club at Liberty park. Game time has been set for 8:00 p. m.

According to present league standings, the local "B.J." club is in a three-way dead-lock for first with Boonville and Columbia.

Chiefs Sign 7 Legion Players
Manager Joe Imhauser has signed seven graduating players from the Post 16 American Junior Legion team in an effort to bolster his club for the remainder of the season. Players from the Legion that will now wear the Chief uniform are Bill Arnold and Skip Schulz, pitchers; Floyd Burton, first baseman; Bob Lane and Sonny Thomas, infielders; Bill Dey and Bob Bartlett, outfielders.

Obtaining these players, Manager Imhauser is assured of having sufficient players on hand for games. For the past several weeks the Chiefs have been operating with only enough to make-up the team and sometimes an extra. This factor should help in coming games as much as having a shortage of material hurt in the first half flag battle.

Boonville Has Been Tough
Boonville was an early season hex to the Sedalias, beating them three straight before the Chiefs could turn the tables. In the last meeting of the two clubs, the Chiefs supported Bob Brown's six hit shutout pitching with six runs for a victory.

Brown is slated to hurl again tonight against Boonville. He will probably face Sid Boedecker, chunky little lefthander, whom the Chiefs defeated at Boonville. Boedecker was a selection of the southern division for the Ban Johnson All-Star game at Boonville last week.

Broadus to Play Shortstop
Imhauser has decided to use Don Broadus at shortstop and leave Bill Morgan at the keystone position. In Sunday night's 6-1 win over Moberly, Broadus proved to be nearly as capable as Jerry Lumpey, who signed with the New York Yankees last week. Broadus handled eight chances and committed only one bobble.

Hitting, which has proved to be the local's biggest headache all season, is looking better. The loss of the batting order is still in some-what of a slump, but Bill Holst, Larry Vilmer and Brown provided the punch Sunday night.

Probable Chief Starters
Probable starters for the Chiefs will be Bill Hawley, 1B; Bill Morgan, 2B; Don Broadus, SS; Ralph Waters, 3B; Bill Holst, LF; Bill McCrary or Imhauser, CF; and Larry Vilmer, RF.

The Boonville line-up has not been announced, but in previous games they have fielded a well balanced unit. Several league managers have tabbed the Lions as the top hitting club in the circuit. Four of their players were All-Star selections.

Levi's Tounce on Sweet Springs 12-1

The Sedalia Levi's on Tuesday night came through to tounce upon the Sweet Springs "Sweet Shoppe" team by a 12 to 1 score in the Central Missouri Softball league. The game was played on the Center Park diamond at Sixteenth and Center.

Belsha pitched a fine 4-hitter ball game for the Levi's while his teammates came through with timely hits against the opposition. Twelve hits were collected off the offerings of Mackestey of Sweet Springs.

E. Barnes led in the Levi's hitting department getting three for four times at the plate, while Swisher, Thompson and Barr collected two hits for three times at bat. One of Barnes safeties was a home run.

Batteries: Mackestey and Krause for Sweet Springs; Belsha and Swisher for the Levi's.

Friday night the Sedalias go to Houston for another league game. Players making the trip are to meet at 420 Wilkerson at 7 p. m.

Indians Chief Yankee Threat

Phillies Nose St. Louis Cardinals Out of Third

By Joe Reichler
Associated Press Sports Writer

Cleveland's onrushing Indians loomed today as the chief threat to New York's hopes of retaining the American league crown now that Boston's Red Sox are showing signs of losing their magic touch at Fenway park.

Continuing to rebound from two straight licks at Yankee Stadium, the Indians last night made it four victories in their last five games by conquering the Senators in Washington, 5-3.

The triumph gave the Tribe undisputed possession of second place, two games behind the Yankees and one in front of the third place Red Sox.

The Red Sox, in absorbing a shocking 8-6 setback at the hands of the lowly St. Louis Browns, now have lost four out of seven since returning to Fenway park.

Chicago dropped a 4-2 decision to the Philadelphia Athletics. The defeat, the tenth in their last 11 games, dropped the fourth place White Sox a discouraging seven and a half games behind the idle Yankees.

The arrival of August finds the Brooklyn Dodgers sailing along serenely with a nine and a half game advantage in the National league. The runaway Dodgers ran their victory skien to ten in a row with an 8-3 win in Pittsburgh.

New York's runner-up Giants kept pace with a 4-3 victory in Chicago. Philadelphia's defending champion Phillies swept past St. Louis into third place with a 7-5 triumph in Cincinnati while the Boston Braves were shutting out the Cardinals, 6-0.

Aging Louis to Fight Cesar Brion Tonight

Ten Rounds is Highly Vital to Both Fighters

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 1.—(P)

—Aging Joe Louis, whose great ambition is to become the first ever to win back the heavyweight championship, battles it out tonight with Argentina's best prospect of 25-years—Cesar Brion.

Their 10-round fight at the Cow Palace, expected to return better than $50,000 in gate receipts, is highly important to both.

Louis will be at the end of the road if defeated. The ex-champ must win this or else his chances of getting a crack at the crown will be gone, probably forever.

At 37, Joe hasn't many years left for the ring. Father time is trodding on the bomber's heels. Louis beat Brion for a 10-round decision last November in Chicago but the 24-year-old contender from the Argentine has improved greatly since then. After slugging the old ex-champ in the last two rounds of their Chicago scramble, Cesar decided Louis' former K. O. punch either has diminished or he is of the hardy stuff from which future champions are built.

Louis has been established a 4-1 favorite to defeat the South American champion in their second meeting. Brion, in the last four fights this year, lost a decision to Bulldog Rex Layne and then defeated three other rivals including the British champion, Jack Gardner.

Louis is expected to weigh in around his favorite fighting weight of 212 pounds. Brion is a 195-pounder.

T. and C. Girl's Play La Monte Tonight

The T. and C. Insurance girl's softball team will play the La Monte girl's team tonight at 8:30 p. m. at the 16th and Center diamond.

Sunday, the T. and C. team will play the Sacred Heart girl's softball team at 8:00 p. m. at Center Park under the lights.

Shutout For The Cardinals

Chet Nichols of Braves Blanks Them Tuesday

By The Associated Press

The St. Louis Browns ended a 10-game losing streak at Boston's Fenway park last night by stopping the Red Sox, 8-6.

It was the Browns' first decision in Boston since June 9, 1950 when pitcher Ned Garver turned the trick.

Garver tried it again last night but didn't make it. He won the cheers of the crowd as he tried to continue after injuring his left leg as he helped the Browns launch a three-run rally in the fifth. Garver pulled a muscle in a leg.

Satch Paige, the old man of the mound, came in then. He was in jams but got out of them until he tired in the eighth and then Jim McDonald stepped in to choke off the Red Sox.

Paige was given credit for the victory as Garver, who was leading, 4-2, failed to complete five innings required by scoring rules. It was Paige's second victory against two losses.

Young Chet Nichols of the Boston Braves blanked the Cardinals at St. Louis last night, 6-0. The 20-year-old lefthander permitted only six base runners, two of them on walks. No Card reached third base and only two reached second as he turned in his second victory of the season over St. Louis.

The Braves collected 10 hits. They were aided by first baseman Earl Torgeson. Tom Poholsky relieved Lanier and the Braves continued for seven more hits.

Torgeson scored three of the Boston runs on a walk, his fifteenth homer of the season and a double. That gave him five hits in two games. He singled three times while the Cards were shading Boston, 4-3, Monday night.

'Bud' Thomas Selected As All-Star Shortstop Of The Central League

Sedalia's John "Buddy" Thomas received another award to add to his baseball laurels recently when he was chosen as shortstop on the Central League's all-star squad.

Thomas, a member of the Dayton club, was one of the two unanimous choices for the team, the other being Oscar Khederaian, Saginaw, third baseman.

Among the 25 players selected for the team, only three other members of the Dayton team made the team. They were Jim Crandall, manager, Bob Fencel, pitcher and Frank Scarpace, outfielder.

Teen-age Blues Even up Games

Defeat Junior Legion by 8-4 Score Tuesday

By The Associated Press

Jack Barnes, the Blues pitcher, allowed his old teammates only seven hits and striking out nine and walking three. Jim Fall the Post 16 pitcher allowed the Blues only six hits but was wild at times walking seven batters and striking out five batters. J. Walters did the receiving for the Blues and Larry Mines for the Post 16 team. Billy Dey and Jim Fall both hit doubles for the Post 16 team while Barnes tripled for the Blues.

Umpires were Steele behind the plate and Ryan on the bases.

handlers. They are Ed Lopat, Bob Kuzava, Stubby Overmire, Joe Ostrowski, Art Schallcock and Wiesler.

Jensen, the former California football star, was bought from Oakland in the winter of 1949. It was reported he and Billy Martin cost at least $100,000.

As a bonus player he remained with the Yanks all last season, although he played in only 45 games. He hit about .500 in the early weeks of this season but hasn't been used regularly in recent months.

Jensen To Play Regular
Although the Yanks tried to make him over into a pitcher, a position he played in college, Jensen convinced them he had the hitting power to make the club eventually. They want him to play regularly, hence the option to Kansas City.

Have you heard about the new killed virus vaccine for preventing Hog Cholera? This product is also called Crystal Violet Vaccine. HERE IT IS! and 10 good reasons for using Colorado Hog Cholera Vaccine:
1. Cannot give a pig cholera, and will build a strong dependable immunity to Hog Cholera.
2. No stunting, no serious virus reactions, no need to change feeding program.
3. Eliminates live virus being brought to non-infected pigs.

8. Appeals to the swine owner who wishes to avoid cholera losses and prefers not to take the risk of using live virus.
9. No periods of lowered resistance permitting entrance of other swine diseases.
10. Readily available at your own particular convenience.

BLACKHEAD IN TURKEYS

Enheptin Pre-Mix has been on the market for a year or so and has been a profit saver for many turkey raisers. This Pre-Mix is mixed into turkey feed as a treatment and as a preventive for Blackhead. This year they have been able to produce Enheptin Soluble to be mixed into drinking water for turkeys. As any turkey man knows a sick bird will continue to drink water even after they quit eating. Enheptin Soluble saves all the trouble of having the medicament mixed with the feed. It should be the answer for the big problem of Blackhead or Enterohepatitis in turkeys.

Red Press in Slap at Churches

BERLIN, August 1—(AP)—East Berlin's Communist press Tuesday accused the churches and various individual citizens of failing to support the big Red World Youth Festival opening Sunday in the Russian sector of the city.

The press criticism contained pointed warnings that the churches were expected, at least, to hang out flags to welcome the Communist youth which is streaming into Berlin from all points of the compass.

Laggard citizens were reminded that every resident of East Berlin was expected not only to decorate his house but to provide as much space as possible for quartering the 2,000,000 delegates expected for the two-week festival.

Piling that many visitors into crowded and badly-battered East Berlin is the biggest task of its kind ever undertaken here.

The Communist party organ Neues Deutschland, said so far, after weeks of effort, the tests had been arranged for about 685,000 visitors of these 100,000 are to be lodged with families and the remainder in "mass quarters"—schools and other public buildings, stadiums and tent cities.

62,700 Flunk In First Test

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1—(AP)—About 62,700 college students flunked the first draft aptitude test, given May 26 to 165,000 men, selective service said Tuesday.

The agency announced the outcome of the first test only. A total of 339,056 students took the test May 26, June 16, June 30 or July 12, but results from the latter tests have not been tabulated.

Selective service said that 53 per cent of the 42,500 freshmen tested May 26 earned scores of 70 or better as did 64 per cent of the 33,000 sophomores, 72 per cent of the 44,000 juniors, and 77 per cent of the 18,500 seniors.

The test also was given to 7,000 graduate students.

Selective service said these samples indicate that about 40 per cent of the students in the lower portion of their classes and 75 per cent in the upper part scored 70 or better.

Henry Chauncey, president of the educational testing service, said studies of the relationship between test scores and college grades at 23 institutions showed that results are "quite satisfactory in all instances, regardless of the field of study."

Draft boards have been asked to use the test scores and scholastic records in determining whether to defer individual college students.

Indiana Loses Welfare Grant

WASHINGTON, Aug. 1—(AP)—Federal Security Administrator Oscar R. Ewing cut off Indiana from federal welfare funds, effective immediately.

The state has received $18,000,000 a year from the government in welfare grants.

Ewing disapproved the state's welfare program because of a new state law opening Indiana welfare rolls to public inspection.

His disapproval makes the cut-off of federal funds automatic. But just when that money would be shut off was not immediately clear.

"I deeply regret," Ewing said "having to make this decision disapproving the Indiana state plans for old age assistance, aid to dependent children and aid to the blind."

"However, the Indiana legislature has given me no choice and I am compelled by law to do so."

Several other states have considered a move similar to Indiana's decision to make welfare rolls public. Federal regulations require that names of welfare recipients be withheld from the public.

Any state plan for the three welfare programs must conform to

New Honor Added to Long War History

SOMEWHERE IN KOREA—(AP)—The Seventh Infantry Regiment, one of the oldest units in the American army, has a new honor to add to a history that goes back to the War of 1812.

It is a distinguished unit citation from President Truman to the First Battalion and supporting elements for three days of magnificent fighting in last April's savage battle of the Imjin river.

More than 1,000 men of the Third Division will wear the award.

It covers an uphill counterattack to help cover the withdrawal of a Belgian battalion and a series of fierce blocking actions down the Uijongbu road that helped break the back of the Chinese offensive.

The Red attack petered out at the gates of Seoul a week later.

The battalion commander is Lt. Col. Fred Weyand of Heraldsburg, Calif.

The battalion's retreat was covered by the Third Platoon of the regiment's heavy tank company.

This group shares in the citation with the Headquarters Intelligence and Reconnaissance Platoon, The First Platoon of the medical company and the First Platoon of the heavy mortar company.

The citation tells of the battalion's 15-mile movement the next day, April 24, maintaining blocking positions in the main line from Seoul to Uijongbu.

In the night of April 24-25, the Red's hordes poured against the Seventh Infantry Regiment.

In the latter action alone, one company of the battalion counted more than 300 dead Chinese in front of its position on April 25th.

The battalion is part of the Seventh Regiment, which first fought in the battle of New Orleans in 1815.

It is commanded by Col. James O. Boswell of Washington, D. C.

The Letter of Love

Mrs. Lillian Biagi Miller, 27, is chucked under the chin by her 31-year-old husband, George Miller of Jeffersonville, Ind., on her arrival in New York July 30 by ship. They were married in October, 1950, in Florence, Italy, following a 2-month courtship which began when Lillian, bored with her typist job, wrote a letter to the Atlanta Constitution asking to be put in touch with correspondents. Miller said he first saw the letter reprinted in the Louisville (Ky.) Times. Mrs. Miller said they lived together only 15 days after their marriage because her husband's visa did not permit a longer stay. (AP Wirephoto)
